The Roots of Colorism, or Skin Tone Discrimination

He simply said he would call me back in two days after looking into the possibility of letting my friend act on my behalf.

14 Differences Between Japanese Women & Chinese Women

Using this post to put down a country is a bit too comical. Through her tireless translation of popular Chinese internet news and phenomenon, her English has apparently gotten dramatically better. The normal sex ratio at birth is about 105 males for every 100 females because girls naturally survive to adulthood more often than boys.

Commentary: I am Peranakan not Chinese

However, it is a difficult adjustment for these women, who usually don't speak Korean and don't understand the expectations that will be placed on them in a Korean family—particularly the enormous expectations around their children's education.

14 Differences Between Japanese Women & Chinese Women

In reality, it was tantamount to military training.

The Brutal History of Japan's 'Comfort Women'

Some were later brought over to learn English and go back to the colonies as translators, while others travelled in colonial delegations to petition the British government over issues such as trading rights. As a result of increasing wealth, most families had access to ultrasounds and abortions, and the nation as a whole saw 120 boys being born for every 100 girls throughout the 1990s.
