Deafblind

This publication examines the importance of hands for the person who is deafblind, reviews hand development, and identifies specific teaching skills that facilitate hand development and expressiveness in persons who are deafblind. During the 1970s, world conferences were next hosted by Perkins School for the Blind in the USA, by Condover Hall once again, and then in Sydney by the Australian schools serving deafblind children. It was during the Sydney conference in 1976 that the International Association for the Education of the Deafblind IAEDB was officially born, electing Keith Watkins of Australia as its first Chairman.
