County Town Questions

Where he or she lives might tell you that. Making the best use of land does not necessarily mean you have to build up every neighborhood to the highest density possible. .

County Town Questions

What neighborhood do you live in? If someone came to you with a proposal to build a new piece of public infrastructure in our city road, bridge, etc. You could raise these questions in a public forum, at a personal meeting, or even informally, if you happen to run into the candidate at the grocery store.

Frequently Asked Questions

These spikes are surrounded by development that generally decreases in productivity further from the city center, as you move out toward the more modern suburban development. What To Listen For: A candidate who utilizes a Strong Towns approach should focus on small, incremental investments and bottom-up action over large-scale, top-down projects. For example, if your order is being picked up 3 to 5 p.
