My research on Scottish psychiatry has continued to see published outputs during my Lectureship at Brookes, including an analysis of R. Background I came to Newcastle University on 1 Sept. Far from frivolous, Baer clearly demonstrates that the OP riots of 1809 were a crucial component in the evolution of English popular culture and the creation of an English national identity during the early nineteenth century.

Scull, Andrew 1947

As a result, the OP riots were, politically, an opportunity for those without the franchise to be heard on the issues of tradition, the moral economy and equity. History of Psychiatry 1997, 8 30 , 177-212.
