Wolf Mountain/Blue Lagoon

Jackie Hodgins, November 2017 from Kate Morrow Cathy Squires I attended Wanapitei, starting in 1956 for several years.

In Memory

It was my second home.

In Memory

Or just enjoy the blue water and the swim. Going back and redoing something is a waste of time.

Wanapitei Canoe

He had spent many years before becoming involved with Wanapitei doing canoe-based fishing trips with his university friends. We usually exceed the minimum one-to-six camper-staff ratio set by the OCA.

The story behind a missing man

These could be anything from weekend canoe training, to a 3-week Arctic trip or a 10-day Central American tour. Cassell, 29, a Chicago native and naturalist, is visiting Temagami for the first time. Lugging the leviathan birchbark canoe is a different story.

In Memory

Her summers were occupied with horticulture, working for the municipality of Whistler.

Lake Wanapitei and Larry Berrios Annual Sandbanks Concert

Sailing continued to be his passion only outshone by his love for Nancy passed away in 2002 and his never-ending love of dancing and jazz music.

Donato applied his unique, go-far-fast-and-light technique to help resolve two cold cases involving downed aircraft in the American Southwest. Rare species such as the golden eagle and the aurora trout, and some of the largest nesting concentrations of great blue herons, osprey, pine warblers and merlins in Ontario are also found here.

Directors' Messages

Shelagh Grant 1938 — 2020 It is with saddened hearts that we announce the passing of Shelagh Grant, past vice-president, long-time friend, share-holder and avid supporter of Wanapitei. His email and bank accounts were monitored; no activity was detected.
