Of the Italian type, the first illustrated edition appears to be that of Mantua, of 1550, followed by that of 1560, the latter having illustrations surrounding each page. The term implies that the binding is modern, or recent, unless otherwise specified. Oblong folios are produced the same way but bound at the short edge, producing a book typically more than 14 inches deep.

The Malbim Hagaddah « Pesach « Ohr Somayach

On all other nights we eat leavened or unleavened bread; on this night only unleavened? We are privileged to present the Malbim Haggadah to the English-speaking public for the first time since its first appearance in Hebrew one hundred years ago. A single gathering of a quarto book, then, would be a sheet folded twice, containing four leaves, eight pages of text.

Two Unusual Haggadahs to Enhance the Seder

Scarce Ladino issue of this 18th-century Venetian edition printed by the famous Stamperia Bragadina in Venice.
