Fundamental rights, justice and truth in South Africa (1999 edition)

Some viewed them as not entirely accurate, as many people would lie in order to keep themselves out of trouble while receiving amnesty for their crimes. Government health officials said a broader program was not feasible since Nevirapine only worked when infected mothers used formula to feed their newborns. Interestingly, state action need not always be present.

Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996

Soobramoney brought suit claiming that the hospital's refusal to treat him violated his right to health care and to emergency medical treatment under chapter 2, section 27 of the Bill of Rights of the South African Constitution.

Truth and Reconciliation Commission (South Africa)

Those whose needs are the most urgent and whose ability to enjoy all rights therefore is most in peril, must not be ignored by the measures aimed at achieving realisation of the right.
