You must give up your cultural heritage if you assimilate.

Chicano studies: forging identity

The sense of powerlessness that is pervasive among Chicano and Latino youth is being, ironically reproduced in departments that were to be the spaces to train the catalyst agents for social transformation. Soldatenko's narrative is nuanced, gender and sexuality are explored in the curriculum, and, unlike some years ago, many Chicano Studies departments have reluctantly embraced a pan-Latino perspective. One of the banned books in Arizona, 2010.

Soldatenko, Michael. Chicano Studies: The Genesis of a Discipline. 2011 » Inter

He carefully describes the role of the mythical Plan de Santa Barbara, which laid the foundation for contemporary Chicano Studies programs, departments or research centers.

Soldatenko, Michael. Chicano Studies: The Genesis of a Discipline. 2011 » Inter

Just like in traditional politics, Chicano and Latino students are exposed not to real persons but to mythical figures like Cesar Chavez and Dolores Huertas less often , who seem so mythical that they are impossible to emulate.

Chicanx studies as a Discipline

Lack of coherence in the presentation of student issues to university administrators: ix.
