Readers noticed the obvious parallel with corrupt Communist officials and rotting crops. The Garlic Ballads, originally published by the People's Liberation Army Publishing House, was set in mythical Paradise Country, where practically nothing has changed.

Cao Yu, a classic of the 20th century.

By contrast, nothing here about painting which is dealt with in other essays, some of which are translated by Eric Janicot 4. His novels are widely available in Chinese bookstores, and besides the Nobel Prize, he has received virtually every major Chinese literary award.

Cao Yu, a classic of the 20th century.

Politics catches up: In 1946, he spent a year in the U. Feng ru fei tun 1995, Big Breasts and Wide Hips , a celebration of the female, stirred some controversy due to its sexual content, and the book was withdrawn from sale. Set during the Sino-Japanese war in Mo Yan's hometown, Gaomi County, the story portrays three generations of a Chinese family in times of brutality.
