Hong Kong Christians Respond as Beijing's Grip Tightens

We cannot make that argument when we find that Christians are split between democracy activists on the one hand and government officials and regime supporters on the other.

ChinaAid: ChinaAid welcomes two dissidents to safety

Jonathan Saruk—Getty Images The enclave has long served as a harbor for agitators and insurrectionists. Hong Kong protesters adopt new weapon: Christmas carols : Christians who camped out at occupy sites found brotherhood there.

Hong Kong Watch Challenges Vatican to Change China Policy

Will be a good Reading copy. Dennis Balcombe is a missionary and pastor in China, as well as founder of Revival Chinese Ministries International. The law, which went into effect without a review by Hong Kong Chief Executive Carrie Lam, has four categories of crimes: succession, subversion of state power, local terrorist activities and collaborating with foreign or external foreign forces to endanger national security.

Missionary to China: How Christians Are Responding to Dangerous COVID

SARS began in China but spread to Hong Kong through a massive cover-up on the part of the Chinese authorities. In Hong Kong, while there have been 50 proven infections with only one death to date, the whole city is on lockdown and probably over 99% are wearing face masks in public places including church meetings.
