What Is Behind the Conflict Between Islam and the West?

The government, however, has declared a separation of religion and state.

Islam

They naturally distrust and see as threats those who are different and have the capability to harm them. For Muslims the mosque is a place for worship and education, a refuge from the cares of the world. It is entirely reasonable to admit that religion is able to form a social order, which is influenced by its conventions and ethics, but only at a time when social circumstances would permit such an influence.

From Mawdudi to Ghamidi: The legacy of Political Islam

Muslims make up about one-fifth of the world's population but in the 1990s they have been far more involved in intergroup than the people of any other civilizations. From a juridical perspective, social changes cannot be restricted to a single definition.

Political aspects of Islam

In summary, a political ideology is a set of ideas that is considered as a decisive solution for the political aspects of human life. The Prophet Muhammad pbuh and a number of his followers were en-route to perform the pilgrimage to Mecca, when Meccan polytheists who wished to prevent them from entering the city confronted them.
