What another 1989

Television commercials featured dancing cossacks, swarms of brown-faced migrants and trade unionists with Liverpool accents - all signposts to the route New Zealand might take unless 'Rob's Mob' gained control. A by profession, Lange was first elected to the in the of 1977. Norman Kirk was also one of eleven MPs since 1905 that, having held the office of Prime Minister, triggered a by-election in their electorate; seven died in office Seddon, Massey, Ward, Holland, Fraser, Nash, Kirk and four resigned Holyoake, Muldoon, Bolger, and Clark.

Nuclear free New Zealand

Francis Dillon Bell 14 May 1925 — 30 May 1925 Reform 21. The plan was sound, tactically and constitutionally.

NZ politicians' best and worst insults

See Appendix 1 Of the 114 by-elections held in New Zealand since 1905, 101 have been held for general electorates and 13 for Māori electorates.

His Way: A Biography of Robert Muldoon

The same is true in terms of what areas we prioritise in funding education, skills training and infrastructure.

David Lange to Jacinda Ardern, how New Zealand is transferring power to millennials

For a conservative, he appeared to have little faith in market forces and slight commitment to property rights. All it does is create a group of advisors who will then have to depend on the Government and Parliament to create new tools and twist the dials on those tools.
