Gaining knowledge about other cultures is peaceful because it allows students to think about diversity, culture and acceptance. As a multicultural, multilingual staff is recruited, what languages and cultures should be represented in what numbers and in what locations? New York: Orchard Books, 1992.

Introduction

One of the first elements I noticed was the dark colors used throughout the book, starting with the cover page, including the in pages and many of the pages throughout the story. As a result, there will be continuing revisions to make it more internally consistent.
