Do you believe in Magic? Brian Selznick's The Houdini Box

There was a lot of testing and set-up that took time and money but I stayed with the project and eventually had 50 devices made that cost many thousands of dollars. Magicians Dorothy Dietrich and Dick Brookz have been caring for the escape artist's Queens grave over the years.

The Houdini Box by Brian Selznick

Locking himself in trunks in the hope of escape, nets him the rescue of his mother time and time again.

The Houdini Box

It has a nice story inspired by the magician and it devotes a small biography about Houdini the last few pages. Next a card that looks like a blackboard slate is placed into the device. Houdini: A Mind in Chains New York: , 1976.
