Chapter 2.04 FIRE MARSHAL

The Commissioner residing further from any other such district shall be deemed to represent the district in which such Commissioner resides.
PREAMBLE We, the people of Pierce County, Washington, in order to secure the benefits of home rule, establish separate legislative and executive branches, provide responsible and integrated County government, claim the rights of initiative and referendum, and encourage citizen participation, in accordance with the Constitution of the State of Washington, do hereby adopt this Charter.

History

An emergency ordinance shall be introduced and passed in the manner prescribed for ordinances generally, except that the emergency and the facts creating it shall be stated in a separate section of the emergency ordinance. Originally Adopted November 4, 1980 Section 2.

When a statute specifically designates the things or classes of things upon which it operates, an inference arises that the Legislature intended to omit all things or classes of things not named in the statute.

Whatcom County, Washington

In 2013, anti-coal progressives were motivated and won back control of council. What is at issue here is the right of the voters of Whatcom County to challenge an ordinance enacted by their county council.

Commissioners serve for one year and receive no salary. The rule in Washington is that the referendum power extends only to matters legislative in character and not to merely administrative acts. ORIGINAL TEXT Adopted November 4, 1980: The Executive shall prepare and present to the Council, within one year of being installed into office, a six-year plan which shall be updated annually, and shall include proposed capital improvement and economic development programs and general administrative goals.
