Nippon or Nihon? No consensus on Japanese pronunciation of Japan

It would seem the culprit behind this variation of the name is Marco Polo during his reported visits to Northern China during the Yuan Dynasty. Seisho wa mata, wareware wa jūjika-jō no shi o tōshite go jishin o ataeta miko iesu: Kirisuto, watashitachi no shinkō ni yotte gi o tassei shi,-zai no tame no ike ni e to shite, kare no chi o nagasa dekiru koto o sengen shimasu.

Kare, iesu wa, shinudarou to,-shin go jishin chikyū-jō no musuko wa, anata dake naku. The language would have been much better served if this did not happen.

Shinnosuke Nohara

A society thousands of years old still not sure of the origin of their country's name. This body is no longer my own.

Arekisandā, shīzā, sharurumānyu, to watashi wa teikoku o setsuritsu shimashita. However, the government simply ignored their request.

Shinnosuke Nohara

A thousand years of history, literature and culture, gone in a stroke. And obviously you can't have an infinite length article; that's just common sense. Anata jishin o hozen suru tame ni nanimodekinai to iu jijitsu o ukeireru! Watashi wa watashi no musuko, iesu: Kirisuto o sōshin suru
