Saints and Servants of God ...

Thus in 1849 a community of the Oratory was established in London in William IV Street. So Faber, as a Catholic, expanded the Church's hymns that were suitable for congregational singing and encouraged the practice. RULES ESTABLISHED BY BLESSED LEONARD FOR THE CONDUCTING OF THE MISSIONS, WHICH HE HIMSELF FAITHFULLY OBSERVED.

He published a number of theological works, and edited the Oratorian Lives of the Saints. John of the Cross; the brooding brilliance of Pascal; the soaring eloquence of Bossuet; the roseate cheer of St. Bethlehem, and Nazareth, and Calvary, came out of her consent, a consent which God did in no wise constrain.

Frederick William Faber

And all thy ways adore; To every day I live, I seem To love thee more and more.
