But if the Epistle and History of Gildas are indeed one work, as seems probable, Maelgwn must have been alive in 560. The beavers, in order to construct their castles in the middle of rivers, make use of the animals of their own species instead of carts, who, by a wonderful mode of carriage, convey the trees from the woods to the rivers.

Property and Power in the Early Middle Ages

For it is meet that destruction should overtake him, who was threatening with slaughter the man of God, and that he who was pitiless to the servants of God should suffer vengeance without pity.
