Love, Marriage, and Sex

Naturally, in a culture that defines individuality as self-determination and self-assertion, discipline is at best suspect, at worst oppressive.

A Christian view of marriage

Why does our society think marriage should come in our 30's after we hang all sorts of degrees on the wall? On the other hand, men were not expected to be virgins when they became husbands.

A Christian view of marriage

So it is a mistake for us to see celibacy as either a compromise or a curse for those who, because of their sexual orientation or their situation in life, are unable to enter into the covenant of heterosexual marriage. Cormac Ó Cuilleanáin New Haven, Conn. Craig Williams concludes that homoeroticism, mostly in the form of male pederastic desire, was commonplace in Roman society.
