10 Beliefs of Judaism Religion

We feel a sense of wonder but also a sense of awe and humility as we perceive how small we are in the universe as well as within the history of evolution.

10 Teachings on Judaism and the Environment

This idea is expressed in the concept that humans were created in the image of God tzelem Elohim.

Summary of Judaism

The main beliefs of Judaism are Monotheism, Identity, and covenant love of God. Excellent overview of Judaism as a religion and the differences and similarities between the traditionalist and modernist POVs. Hanukkah is never mentioned in the Bible and was never considered a major holiday in Judaism, but it has become much more visible and widely celebrated during modern times, mainly because it falls around the same time as Christmas and has national Jewish overtones that have been greatly emphasized since the establishment of the State of Israel.

Judaism 101

After some fighting the Jews established the Israelite kingdom. See how beautiful they are -- how excellent! Steinberg is analytical in his presentation but also thorough and loving. A great overview of Jewish thinking and tradition.

Basics of Judaism

Anyone born to a Jewish mother is considered a Jew. The Reform movement mostly consider their synagogues as temples.

Judaism: Basic Beliefs

Some things are clearly written in proverbial stone, but everything else is left up to you to think about, decide, and experience for yourself.

10 Beliefs of Judaism Religion

What is the Jewish headpiece called? These proscriptions, however, are seen as gifts, not punishments, for they set aside the sacred time in which life can flourish, nurtured by prayer and contemplation, rest and reflection, laughter and joy. The belief of human free will is fundamental to the Jews. I'd recommend it for the information, but there are probably more fun ways to get the info.
