He had one legitimate daughter, Julia, with his first wife and a probable illegitimate son with Cleopatra. The mastermind was supposedly a bankrupt aristocrat by the name of Catiline, who had turned to revolution when he had failed to reach power by legitimate means.

10 Important People From Ancient Rome

The Athenian woman was not a citizen.

The dangerous streets of ancient Rome

Iron wheels made so much noise that they were actually banned from entering city centers during the day. Stone, marble and even an early form of concrete were used in the palatial mansions of the rich. Both Greeks and Phoenicians were actively engaged in trade with the Italian natives.
