Ottorino Respighi(1879

I also like the Botticelli Pictures and the lovely Concerto Gregoriano, which I wrongly thought must be by someone like Finzi when I first heard it on the radio. Original music by Attilio Ariosti P 074 1907 Notturno Orchestra: large orchestra P 075 1908 Concerto all'antica Orchestra: instrument and orchestra For violon and orchestra.

Respighi: Roman Trilogy By Ottorino Respighi (1879

About Listening CDs Listening CDs are traditional music recordings. He's one of my favorites and one that I have explored quite deeply. Of particular interest is that after the international success of the Fountains of Rome in 1916 and its grandly large orchestra, Respighi shows a unique versatility in the orchestration of Trittico Botticelliano.

Torchi had remarkable musical interests for the time. Respighi also wrote an early Concerto all'Antica for violin which has been recorded but which I have not yet! Wikipedia list article This is a complete list of the compositions by the composer 1879—1936. In fact, Neo-Renaissance, or Neo-Baroque would probably more accurately describe his compositions that are based on earlier work.

Ottorino Respighi (1879

His work in this area influenced his later compositions and led to a number of works based on early music, notably his three suites of Ancient Airs and Dances and the Suite Gli uccelli The Birds.
