Abstract

The present paper is an introduction of Ahmad Faraz in English and a critical study of his great poem "Mohesurat". Ahmad Faraz, he is known as the most influential poet in Urdu literature. His poem collected in highly celebrated "The Book of Love", "Mohesurat" is an exemplum of orbit literature which glorifies the memory of last poet. Ahmad Faraz holds himself a strong poet of optimism in the bad times and conveys his message to the people that the poets express their freedom through imagination. "Mohesurat" seems to attack on the freedom of speech, freedom right and integrity. Glorifying the poet's poem, the poet sets on a very optimistic note.

Keywords: Reiterative Resonance, Monotone Melody, Lambent Pen, Expression of Resistance.

Muhammad Iqbal

If you needed to say one thing to this year, what would it be? What a great message for our kids to learn - courage to stand up for what is right and understanding other cultures outside of the U.

Muhammad Iqbal

I don't really know how to rate this since I don't read much non-fiction, so I'm going with the following: how I would rate it as if it were a fictional book 2 GR stars: it was okay plus a bonus star for the information level not much and for the cause good cause.

Last year, the duo had led Chennai to their first I-League crown. It has furnished those basic emotions and loyalties which gradually unify scattered individuals and groups, and finally transform them into a well-defined people, possessing a moral consciousness of their own. Would I listen to the lament of the Nightingale, and would I remain all ears? He stated that officials from the Sindh Building Control Authority were present at the scene.

I entertain the highest respect for the customs, laws, religious and social institutions of other communities. But it cannot be disputed that his Urdu poetry made a great impact on large numbers of people, on Hindus and Muslims equally, living in the Subcontinent during the early decades of the twentieth century, and motivated them to participate in the struggle for freedom that was reaching its climax. The two crooks, Easelman and The Swine, want to get hold of the randomly home brewed explosive and blow up Tivoli to build the biggest parking facility in Scandinavia.
