For those who have been drawn to the argument concerning insurance agencies in the free market, this explanation is still the most extended in print.

The 20 Best Liberty Books Ever Written

Building on insights from Hayek, he explains that a successful society requires all kinds of knowledge which, dispersed in the minds of millions, cannot be centralized.

The Market for Liberty on Apple Books

It was the first significant anarcho-capitalist work to hit the libertarian movement, coming into print a year before Rothbard's although Rothbard's book had been written earlier. Admittedly, this debate does not lend itself to easy, black and white conclusions. Hence his famous chapter about why the worst get on top.
