After the prayer, newly ordained elders receive a Bible, newly ordained pastors make remarks, and newly consecrated bishops receive a surplice, tippet, gold cross on a gold chain, and a ring. Deacons lead congregations in compassion and justice ministries.

An Invitation to Wait

This was first set out clearly in 1976 and reiterated in 1994 in the document by Pope John Paul II. It's actually pretty difficult in my limited understanding. This presentation signifies that individuals do not seek ordination on their own, but are responding to God's internal and external call and are therefore presented by the church.

How to Address an Invitation to a Pastor

End the service in customary fashion, with the newly ordained minister joining his fellow ministers at the table or altar to consecrate Holy Communion and share the elements with the congregation.

Christian Titles for Ordination by World Christianity

The denomination recognizes ordination to the three sacred orders as a gift from God to nurture his people and proclaim his gospel everywhere. They are members of a particular Christian sect or church and believe that they are meant to serve their communities in the name of God. If you have some small piece of wisdom to share, by all means do so.
