Le Shtetl

When the community was very small it would be called a klajnshtetl or even a shtetle; however both terms could also carry the connotation of a parochial lack of sophistication or, at times, a feeling of warmth or nostalgia. She is very brief about German Nazi anti-Semitism.

Shtetl: The Life and Death of a Small Town and the World of Polish Jews by Eva Hoffman

All of this meant that throughout much of Poland's history, Jews were a highly visible and socially significant presence-- a constituency that had to be reckoned with and one that could even pose challenges to the Poles themselves.
