Edutopia

Make a statement and have students move to the corner that matches their response to the statement. Typically, your flow state exists in a space between boredom and anxiety. Rescue time is good, although you have to use a paid version to get manual hours option.

Mastering Time Management for College Students

And staying on top of work, easier. In JC, I transitioned from passive reading to summarising and typing responses to news articles—a habit which became the saviour of my GP General Paper grades.
