It also offers additional resources and tools to help states move toward equity. Appendixes contain a list of definitions from each model, a list of questions to help districts evaluate a needs assessment, and one general and four selected short bibliographies. Department of Education ED , in coordination with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention CDC , published guidance, the ED COVID-19 Handbook Volume 1: Strategies for Safely Reopening Elementary and Secondary Schools Handbook , to support the national response to COVID-19.

School Improvement: Needs Assessment

Strategies to Support a Successful Needs Assessment There are a variety of strategies that SEAs can use to help districts conduct meaningful and insightful school-level needs assessments and subsequently develop effective school improvement plans. State assessments and accountability systems play an important role in advancing educational equity, identifying student needs, and targeting the resources to address them. Our work together requires collaboration, dedication, and teamwork.

Our Mission As stated in Title 25 CFR Part 32.

U.S. Department of Education Releases Guidance to States on Assessing Student Learning During the Pandemic

In addition to encouraging flexibility around assessments, ED is allowing states to request a waiver for the Every Student Succeeds Act's accountability and school identification requirements. The Department will continue to engage a broad range of stakeholders regarding how the Biden-Harris Administration can best implement its agenda to prepare all students to succeed in the tomorrow's economy, regardless of race, parents' income, zip code, or disability; and to provide educators with the support, respect and dignity they deserve.

School Improvement: Needs Assessment

The Department also recognizes that individual states may need additional assessment flexibility based on the specific circumstances across or within the state. Department of Education ED is providing guidance to states emphasizing the importance of flexibility in administering assessments this year as a result of the pandemic and supporting the use of assessment data as a source of information for parents and educators to target resources and support, rather than for accountability purposes this year. For schools identified for comprehensive support and improvement CSI , districts are required to work with school teams to conduct a school-level needs assessment.
