The Cost of Discipleship

It bespeaks lack of knowledge and the ignorance of self-sufficiency. Hunter There is a growing concept among men of the world that religion is something reserved for the Sabbath day, or for the hour spent in places of worship or in prayer. The gospel is not just about the salvation of man; the universe itself will be redeemed.

Simple Bible Reading Guide: Baruch

But ultimately, this is the truth of Christian discipleship: that it costs us everything, we have no earthly security, no earthly ties, no earthly distractions that could possibly compare with the glory of our calling to follow Jesus.
