

Heritage of homoeopathic literature - an abbreviated bibliography and commentary

Great Auk Pub. - Homeopathy Quotations of Dr James T. Kent and Others

Marketplace Alert

Here we go again!

I was just informed that a homeopath practicing in Toronto had journalists from Marketplace make an appointment with him in order to get information about homeopathic prophylaxis and vaccination. They did not disclose their identity or real purpose of their visit.

He was later contacted by email and asked for an on camera interview which he declined.

I urge you all to be extremely cautious about who you talk to in your practice, mostly new patients you don't know.

I'm on vacation right now with limited internet access. This issue is very important to us and I will respond when I return once I have time and am back in the office. We will most likely need to unite our community's effort for this upcoming broadcast. Details of what you can do to help will be in the next letter.

Sincerely,
