Luther P. Jackson and a Life for Civil Rights : Dennis, Professor Michael: me.stfw.info.cdn.cloudflare.net.au: Books

Largely forgotten, even in Virginia, until the author resurrected his story, Jackson was involved in almost every important civil rights and liberal initiative in the South in the second quarter of the 20th century. Jackson's determined and indefatigable voting rights crusade helped blacks move from the past to the present, from the indignities of Jim Crow to the new freedoms and responsibilities of full citizenship.
