The Belmont Report

Many kinds of possible harms and benefits need to be taken into account. The Nature and Scope of Risks and Benefits.

Furthermore, the suggestion of C-2 that congregational funds be equally divided between the ministry of the Word and the ministry of mercy may well tend to separate the latter from the preaching of the gospel rather than to unite the two in a single ministry to the whole man.

THE KISSINGER REPORT: December 10, 1974

Records relating to university programs funded by the Arts and Humanities Institute and the National Defense Act Institutes for Advanced Study, 1965-67. Nevertheless, even though one does not stand helpless in the face of vague and ill-defined charges, his recognition of his own guilt and pollution and that of any institution of which he is a member should make him very sensitive to the possibilities of injustice and make him eager to offer recompense where it is called for. We can say it with joy and truth only as our church seeks to evangelize all races and cultures within our nation.

THE KISSINGER REPORT: December 10, 1974

These terms of fellowship are more important than our evangelistic strategies.

Report of the Committee on Problems of Race: The Orthodox Presbyterian Church

Should not all those washed in the blood of the Lamb joyously worship together? We not only need less people.
