NCPTT

Jason Church: Basically anything involved with the stained glass windows. Until 1844 there was even a station in Buckland itself.

NCPTT

Subjects of stained glass windows being made during this time were mostly religious in nature and served to tell Biblical stories to lay people that could not read, as well as beautifying the churches. Divine service has not been performed by a clergyman for seven years.

The History of Stained Glass Windows

The artists used sandblasting to etch the inscriptions and other details into the glass. The purpose of stained glass windows, however, is not to allow people to see outside, but to beautify buildings, control light, and often times to tell a story. The Sanctuary of The Chicago Temple Stained Glass Windows of the Sanctuary of the Chicago Temple The seven windows in the chancel and nave of the sanctuary tell the story of the preparation for the coming of Christ and its results in our world.

NCPTT

Research into the integrity of the window has thoroughly examined its style, craftsmanship, colour, treatment and motifs and, rather amazingly, has dated its origin to the latter half of the 14th century — somewhere between 1350 and 1400.

The Stained Glass Windows

Specifics of its age and origin remain unclear and theories have kept locals bemused for generations.
