Viscount and Earl of the said United Kingdom upon Brigadier-General Sir Alexander Augustus Frederick William Alfred George Cambridge, G.

Charles I, King of Great Britain and Ireland (1600)

If I am not mistaken, it will be found a model of candor, sagacity, impartiality, and close correct reasoning.

Historical Collections: 1625 (Charles I)

The proposals on religion anticipated the Toleration Act of 1689. It should be noted that the by-line date under which the document is gazetted is not necessarily the same as the date of the document itself.

A Proclamation for the Suppression of Coffee Houses

In Witness whereof We have caused Our Great Seal to be affixed to these Presents. But while making these , he visited Scotland in August to try to enlist anti-parliamentary support there. In 1636 the new Book of Canons was issued by the king's authority, ordering the communion table to be placed at the east end, enjoining confession, and declaring excommunicate any who should presume to attack the new prayer-book.
