Significant additions are made to the chapters on public policy, dementia, and oncology.

The Wheelchair Evaluation A Clinicians Guide

The book details powerful ways to help patients not only to achieve weight loss, but also to modify the problematic cognitions that undermine long-term weight control. Since the first edition of Clinical Manual for Assessment and Treatment of Suicidal Patients was published in 2005, advances have been made that increase our understanding of suicidal and self-destructive behavior. Authors Elizabeth Ackley and Gail Ladwig use Nursing Outcomes Classification NOC and Nursing Interventions Classification NIC information to guide you in creating care plans that include desired outcomes, interventions, patient teaching, and evidence-based rationales.
