Music Connection by Silver Burdett Ginn

Music reduces feelings of fatigue. Since 1997, the Music Connection has been dedicated to connecting 4th — 12th grade students with music — regardless of their ability to pay — by providing quality musical instruments, music camps, workshops, and performances for more than 6,000 students each year. For relaxation, choose music that is less than 100 bpm.

Music and Exercise: How Music Affects Exercise Motivation

We have been considering the most meaningful ways to offer solidarity and support to Black communities, how to use our power and platforms to advocate for change and, most importantly, continue to act as an organisation committed to anti-racism.

How Music Bonds Us Together

Kitty Coffey received Thursday the 2019 Founders Day Medallion, one of the most prestigious honors given by the University.

Sound Connections

There is something about music that seems to bring us closer to each other and help us come together as a community. © 2009 San Francisco Symphony, FCOE, CSU Fresno, CCESA and Oak Grove Unified.

Music & Arts

Valley Honor Band and Orchestra The Honor String Orchestra and Honor Band for middle school students is a free afterschool program that focuses on expanding technique, tuning and pedagogy. Must have your own piano or keyboard. Reflection revolves around personal preference or general description.
