Introduction << The New Leadership Paradigm

Our mission is to promote cross-disciplinary dialogue generative of original ideas and integrated perspectives that comprehend the root causes and effective remedies for our common problems, while furthering those currents of thought and social movement that affirm the value of human dignity and equitable development. He stresses the importance of a contextualized approach that avoids rigid standardization and is attuned to the many factors that shape a child's development: cognitive, emotional, physical, moral, social, and spiritual.

Fisheries management in the twenty

The objective of the workshop was to frame the outlines of a comprehensive approach for dealing with the major challenges facing humanity today. New paradigms such as pharmacokinetic modeling and simulations are also discussed.

21st century leadership challenges

And in the midst of these changes, many organizations are not satisfied with their leadership programs. WAAS is founded on faith in the power of original and creative ideas -- Real Ideas with effective power -- to change the world.
