Then, three months later on August 15, 1971, a Sunday, President Nixon shocked the world by announcing that the dollar was no longer convertible to gold, and that a new 10% tax on imports would remain in effect until US trading partners agreed to revalue their currencies against the dollar. It was always an awkward intermediate step.

It would be like me paying a lender extra points to 'buy the mortgage rate down'. In the 1960s, that overvaluation was reflected in the European accumulation of dollars and the one-way gold flow. But more often than not, ,,, as we print that dollar out of thin air, the foreign government takes the dollar into its reserve account and prints one of their units for deposit in the local economic system.

The seeds of the trouble were planted in late 1997, when the Chen brothers launched their Internet service, offering five minutes of free international telephone time to entice customers into their electronics shop. Implementing this program in China will contribute toward the CS2day initiative goal of increasing smoking quit rates by assisting clinicians in delivering evidenced-based smoking cessation strategies. In fact, as a friend pointed out, in attacking Wang this way, Ma risks making the conviction of Chen Shui-bian look even more obviously political than it already does.
