History/Travel

The difference between the historical books of the New Testament consists in this, that while the four Gospels record the history of the revelation of the kingdom of heaven, and of its foundation in the Person and the work of the Lord Jesus, the Book of Acts describes the royal administration of Christ as manifested in planting His kingdom in and for the world, by the power of the Holy Ghost working through the Apostles. On the Apocalypse: Bengel, Auberlen, Hengstenberg, Lücke, Düsterdieck, Ebrard, Bleek, Elliott, Mos. The first Gospel is preeminently that of history, and of the fulfilment of the Old Testament by the sacrificial sufferings and death of Christ and the redemption thus achieved.

A page of the translation contains even more than a page of the original, and while the size of volumes will be enlarged, their number will be lessened. Viewed in this light, the whole history of the world itself is simply the history of the restoration and transformation of the world into the kingdom of God. According to this Christological principle, they are divided into the Old and New Testaments testamentum, διαθήκη, בְּרִית, to indicate that the Old Testament is the incomplete commencement which is explained, fulfilled, and glorified by the New, embodying as it does, absolute perfectness.
