Service Learning

Through these projects students get to learn the importance of community work and service, civic responsibilities and thereby strengthen their communities.

Why Service

And to what extent can we separate respect for service through volunteerism from a genuine respect for those who make public service a way of life—in the military, the local uniformed services, the schools and the hospitals, and dare one even use the word the bureaucracies? The first impact is Personal Connections.

Service

Effective service-learning programs also include required written reflection.
