Most were economic migrants and those who had been denied entry into the professions, universities, civil service and so on rather than political refugees or fleeing from pogroms. In March 1190 a number of local people in York decided to take advantage of the riots against Jews that had been occurring elsewhere in the country, together with a prevailing anti-Jewish sentiment and hostility, to wipe out their indebtedness to Jews.

Questions and answers

We should be glad to learn something more -respecting these heraldic insignia in the Old Chuvch of Leigh : whether they were upon a monument or a hatchment, and if they are still in existence and if so where? It is precisely that lack of self-awareness for which the authors of the early Royal Society and generations of scientists following them often have been blamed.
