John Wesley's Conception and Practice of Primitive Christianity

Wesley assumed the historical method of interpretation throughout his commentary and never wavered from its core principles.

5 Criticisms of John Wesley's Teachings and Our...

The forces of modern democracy and secularism were only in their infancy when Wesley penned his commentary in the 1750s.

Methodist Scholarships

What is needful for us? This school, now known as Patrice Émery Lumumba University, is supported by American Methodists to this day. This is simplicity; when a steady view, a single intention of promoting his glory, of doing and suffering his blessed will, runs through our whole soul, fills all our heart, and is the constant spring of all our thoughts, desires, and purposes. Morgan Roman, Sioux Falls Emma Schwiebert, Gregory Brad Scott, Ainsworth, Neb.
