

Descendants of Captain John and Elizabeth Howland Dickinson of Oyster Bay, Long Island

-- John DICKINSON (Abt. 1622)

Description: -

Lutheran Church -- United States -- Bibliography.

Lutheran Church -- United States.

Dickinson family.Descendants of Captain John and Elizabeth Howland Dickinson of Oyster Bay, Long Island

-Descendants of Captain John and Elizabeth Howland Dickinson of Oyster Bay, Long Island

Notes: Cover title.

This edition was published in 1968

Filesize: 60.74 MB

Tags: #A #Maine #Family's #History

Provincial Archives of New Brunswick

We have no date of marriage of Nicholas Wright, but it was probably at Sandwich that such a ceremony occurred.

Site Title

She married about 1828 Martin Hale, originally from Co. By that time, John had died and Elizabeth moved in with her son, Jabez. He was the 13th name on the list of 41 who signed the Mayflower Compact.

Mehitable (Dickinson) Cheshire (1667)

NOTE: In the Oyster Bay town records, in 1726, an Amos Dickinson was a witness to a deed by James Townsend, James Dickinson and George Townsend to Wright Coles. Eleazer Leverichh, was a son of Rev.

Dickinson Surname Meaning, History & Origin

She was married to a John Hawkins. I have had correspondence with Harry Macy Jr. Before moving to Rhode Island, Jabez Howland owned a home in Plymouth at 33 Sandwich Street.

The Wright of Oyster Bay Genealogy

Yes, date unknown Married 1594 Ely, Cambridge, England Siblings 4 siblings 1. Genealogical information pertaining to Nicholas and Ann Wright and their children begins on page 133 of Perrine's book.

Family talk:John Dickinson and Elizabeth Howland (1)

On the opposite, or south side of Main Street, was the home lot of Nicholas Wright, and here at the southwest corner of Main Street and Berry Hill road he erected his home. Bates, The Ancient Iron Works of Braintree, Massachusetts South Braintree, Massachusetts: F. Witnesses to the marriage were John Shea and James McIntosh.

Mehitable (Dickinson) Cheshire (1667)

Roger Wilder had already passed before Carver, and the maid servant died in a year or so after.

Related Books

- Archeological reconnaissance of the proposed Newport to Waldport and Waldport to Yachats sewer system.
- Cappadocia
- Türk Tarih Kurumu
- Chosön hugi kyöngjesa yön'gu
- London Tourism Development Monitor.