In 1641 Harvey received 1,000 A. There were two main types of manorial tenure: copyhold tenancy the land being held by virtue of a copy of the entry in the court rolls, recording the admission of the tenant whereby services or quit rent was paid to his lord and freehold tenancy whereby the tenant paid rent to the lord of the manor but did not owe services or quit rent.

Most distributions record the percentage and dollar amount of the estate that each heir received. The muster roll records are arranged alphabetically by the last name of the soldier. Many slaves, however, had taken advantage of the war's confusion to leave their owners earlier, some by joining the Union Army.
