D. Parker - How to Type 360 Words a Minute

Description: -

The words and phrases in the following lists are special contractions. They should be carefully examined in the light of the instructions in this handbook. It will then be possible for the reader to form his own individual shortened words and phrases within the framework of the Teeline principles. Such word patterns, well written, should be readable by other Teeline writers. This paragraph is repeated below in basic Teeline, using some of the special contractions.

A photograph of handwritten stenographic shorthand. The handwriting is cursive and uses various symbols and abbreviations typical of stenography, such as 't' for 'the', 'an' for 'and', and 'is' for 'is'. The text is written in black ink on a white background.
