Imperialism: The Basis of Labour Party Crisis by George Padmore 1944

When women did attempt to challenge male hegemony and make inroads into the representation of labour and combination, it was largely due to the tenacity of middle-class reformers such as the Women's Protective and Provident League WPPL which sought to amiably discuss conditions with employers in the 1870s.

China to ban BNO passports as travel documents

This has happened as the company has only white collared staff, engineers and executives. This category is mainly amongst the white collared employees. It marked a shift away from the brand of socialism advocated by the trade unions and a move towards the political centre.

History of trade unions in the United Kingdom

The bargaining relationship is continuous, rather than just a one-time affair. They conclude that without the tribute from the Empire they will be unable to obtain those concessions, except they are prepared to challenge openly the whole fundamental basis of British Capitalist-Imperialism

British trade officials fear ‘damage’ if Canadian politicians delay ratification of trade deal

Support for the SDLP continues to be party policy. Many strikes were declared consequently and most of them were successful. A Short History of Ireland.

Fact check: As Brexit looms, how dependent is Ireland on British trade?

These aims have been to wring concessions from the ruling class, and they have come progressively to the point of view that if the capitalist class is to be in a position to accede their economic demands, that class must have their support whenever its position is threatened.
