Moss nothing is known except that his mother died 16th September, 1745, aged 80, and his father, at the age of 82, on 20th March, 1749-50. In terms of crowd control, the forces of law and order could afford to be more distant because a change of execution rituals was accompanied by a subtle shift in the legal performance of a medical choreography in situ by 1800. Emelia, with a haughty Air, reply'd, She knew not what he meant, nor could imagine what cou'd induce him to affront her at that Rate.
