Promoting entrepreneurship in Eastern Europe

Veterans of the 2nd Brigade — whose officers came from the Habsburg army and used German rather than Polish as the language of command — do not seem to fit either pattern. However, it is unlikely they will be so successful in the next elections. Then, on top of all that, come the harsh realities of capitalism resulting in mass unemployment.

Articles

As the comprehensive and clear assessment of the events from 25 years is actually becoming increasingly problematic, same evident facts and interpretations referring to them need to be recalled. Drobný insists on describing the horror of fighting on the Eastern Front, but still sees good beyond the evil in the Legions he never joined, as well as in honest common soldiers who occasionally found enough humanity within themselves to resist or mitigate the inhuman orders of their superiors.
