What we are offered here is a new Poetics of Culture, ethnography not as a static given but as a series of shifting fields, wherein culture and our image of it is constantly recreated in all of its parts, by all of its members. Becoming an authentic human in indigenous views involves relationship with and treatment of the natural world-asperson. These are the essential items, from canoes and graters to houses and baskets, the things that not only distinguish the Yekuana as a society but incorporate the symbols.
