What Ever Happened to Accountability?

You may be moved to applaud or dramatically disagree with what she has the courage to say, but one way or another, you will be provoked to examine your life; something we can all use a little more of. Operating under extreme time pressure, because the statute of limitations would soon apply to many lesser crimes, Peers and his staff conducted more than 400 interviews.

Russian Voters have a clear choice at the next Election, and that is on the matter of whom can they trust to best Govern Russia for the next five years. Further, while Zhirinovsky is surely no philosopher, his version of Particularism leaves him spoiling for war and while he may need no more incentive to seek conflict than that of territorial acquisitiveness and a desire for masculine self-assertion writ large, the influence of Solovyev can only fuel his already fevered imagination by seeming to provide yet further warrant for warfare. The generals of the Vietnam era had ceased to behave like stewards of their profession and were more like keepers of a guild, taking care of their own.
